Expectations

As young Hawaiians and representatives of our family, school, and greater community, we strive to exhibit excellence, respect, and pride in all we say and do. In this spirit, we commit to a code of conduct that is befitting of this treasured school traditions and honors the legacy of our beloved Princess Bernice Pauahi Bishop.

Expectations

- NO food, drinks, cell phones, contraband, and jewelry (other than watches and class rings) will be allowed in the NBC Exhibition Hall and Arena.
- ALL confiscated items will be returned AFTER Spring Break
- Students who need to use the restroom during the Song Contest event may do so and will be escorted back to a special seating area away from their class.
- During the intermission, students may stand and stretch in place but may not move from designated seats
- Inappropriate celebratory practices may jeopardize the Song Contest production

Expectations

- Students will face consequences for inappropriate behavior (SMILE! Cameras are rolling at all times...)
- Counselors, advisors, and administrators will be on-hand to supervise
- Please be gracious and thank our staff and parent volunteers
- Remember that we are guests at NBC - E Mālama!
- Participate, do your best, make good choices, and have fun...
- This is your FIRST SONG CONTEST!!

Celebrate Appropriately

- Jump up and down
- Scream and shout
- Group hug
- High five
- Clap your hands
- Present class oli
- KEEP CLOTHES, SASHES and LEI ON!
- STAY in YOUR SEATING AREA!
